Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : MR. L. V. BOARDMAN

DATE: July 30, 1956

FROM : A. H. BELMONT

SUBJECT: DEFENSE PLANS - SUMMARY EVALUATION
REPORT, OPERATION ALERT, 1956

Explains Emergency Headquarters For S.D.S.

By memorandum 7-27-56 Arthur S. Flemming, Director, Office of Defense Mobilization (ODM), advised that he had decided to include the heads of all departments and agencies which took part in OPERATION ALERT, 1956, in next week's Defense Mobilization Board meeting. This meeting is to be held in Room 474, Executive Office Building, 2:30 p.m., Thursday, 8-2-56. This meeting will in substance be a preliminary evaluation of OPERATION ALERT, 1956, and Liaison has ascertained that Dr. Flemming will lead a discussion based on the summary evaluation report which has been compiled from the summary evaluation reports submitted by each agency. Nothing of a specific nature will be required from those individuals who participate in the meeting.

The Director has indicated that Mr. Belmont should attend. ODM has been so advised.

It is noted from the summary evaluation report of OPERATION ALERT, 1956, submitted by ODM, that among the items commented upon by the various inspectors at agency relocation sites, activation of the emergency relocation site was most favorably reported upon. The second most favorable aspect of the inspectors' reports had to do with the satisfactory nature of facilities at the relocation site, whereas the item which received the lowest rating was communication effectiveness. Only 17 of the 43 agencies were given a communications rating of outstanding. The FBI received such a rating.

The ODM summary points out the need for additional training for headquarters staff and communications operation personnel at the relocation site.

The Department of Defense summary portion of the ODM document points out that the exercise was considered worthwhile and justified from the standpoint of the time and cost involved. However, they pointed up a lack of understanding between Executive departments' requests for use of military in Civil Defense and a need for advance distribution of proclamations, administrative orders, and other emergency actions. The Joint Chiefs of Staff concluded that the exercise was tremendously worthwhile. The Department of Army concluded that the exercise was extremely valuable, but too short; that local agencies should be provided guidance in advance designed to generate actions and exercise play; and that future exercises should include a world-wide combat situation.

It is noted on page 18 that the FBI is listed as being fully prepared to operate immediately and on a continuing basis at relocation and that this Bureau had no unresolved matters and made no comments relative to the exercise.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : MR. L. V. BOARDMAN

DATE: July 27, 1956

FROM : MR. A. H. BELMONT

SUBJECT: DEPARTMENTAL RELOCATION SITE

Mr. John Airhart of the Department came over to see me this afternoon (July 27, 1956). He said he was going on leave and wanted us to know the recommendations he was making to the Attorney General concerning a joint relocation site for all divisions of the Department, including the Bureau.

He said that the Attorney General raised the question while he was at the relocation site. Airhart does not know how serious the Attorney General is. In Airhart's opinion, a joint relocation site for all portions of the Department is desirable. His recommendation to the Attorney General will so indicate providing 2 conditions can be met.

- 1) If each branch of the Department will agree to put up a certain amount of money as an original sum to establish or convert a relocation site on a permanent basis; and thereafter agree to contribute so much per year to keep it going.
- 2) That a relocation staff would be answerable directly to the Attorney General.

In explaining this latter, Airhart said he wants to get away from different relocation plans on the part of the divisions of the Department and centralize control in the Attorney General so that there will be uniform planning. He said he was able to accomplish this [redacted] to a large extent this year with the result that personnel who were working on problems and on communications were left along with out interference from the headquarters of the division from which they had been drafted. He said he felt that the operation [redacted] was much more effective this year than last year.

Mr. Airhart said he wanted us to know what his recommendations were going to be in the event this matter came up during his vacation. He said he had a feeling that I might be opposed to a central relocation site. I neither affirmed nor denied this inasmuch as the matter has not been presented formally to the Bureau.

I did point out during the discussion with Airhart that the FBI must be set up to operate on an emergency basis at a moment's notice due to our emergency program and, therefore, we must, of course, be in control of our operations and communications.

Memorandum for Mr. Boardman

Airhart felt that this could be accomplished without any difficulty and still have a common communications center at the relocation site; that it did not matter whether the FBI ran the communications site or the Department as long as it was under one head. Airhart was merely letting us know what his recommendation to the Attorney General would be. He said he did not know whether the Attorney General would pursue the matter. At any rate, I made no comment one way or another as we would not want to make any statement until the matter is formally raised.

I basically am opposed to FBI getting involved in this for many reasons. We have already spent large sums for our quarters [redacted] of the radio stations. I do not propose now to urge other quarters for FBI. Also a joint relocation site raises problems of morale, discipline & security with FBI getting the worse of it.

SUBJECT: OPERATION ALERT, 1956

Buplay Emergency Headquarters For S.C.C.

Reference is made to your memorandum dated 8-3-56 wherein you set forth the results of the meeting at the Office of Defense Mobilization (ODM) on 8-2-56. You stated that Dr. Flemming, Director of ODM, stated that during Operation Alert, 1956, four sites would not have been operational due to fall-out. You also stated that ODM would ask for a report from the various agencies by 9-15-56.

Liaison has been discreetly checking with ODM concerning the above, and it has been determined that the Bureau site was not one of the four that would not have been operational due to fall-out; however, Dr. J. D. Coker, ODM, advised that although our site was not involved, it would have been under very slightly different wind conditions.

On 8-13-56 Mr. H. F. Hurley, ODM, advised that the minutes of the meeting of 8-2-56 were in the process of being sent out, and in these minutes it is suggested that each agency

Gene Matchett in the Department called me this afternoon to make inquiry as to whether any of our employees were paid for overtime performed during Operation Alert 1956. Mr. Matchett stated he wanted the information so he could quote me in a report he had to make for the Deputy Attorney General. I asked him why the Deputy Attorney General wanted the information and he said he did not know but he had received a memorandum from him in which he stated he understood that clerical employees of the Department received payment for overtime during Operation Alert. The Deputy Attorney General also said he wanted to know what other agencies did.

Mr. Matchett told me that the Department paid their clerical employees who went on Operation Alert for any overtime performed.

Mr. Matchett was informed that no employee was paid for overtime performed during Operation Alert and that clerical employees were granted compensatory time off for any hours that they worked in excess of the 40-hour work week.

The foregoing is submitted for your information.

Dear Dr. Flemming:

Reference is made to your communication dated August 10, 1956, requesting information as to the steps this Bureau has taken to man our relocation site continuously and the steps we have taken to identify a select group of key officials who would be subject to standing instructions to proceed immediately to our relocation site whenever necessary.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation site is manned continuously by a group of employees whose regular duties are carried out at the relocation site.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has a group of key officials and supporting personnel who are under standing instructions to proceed immediately to the relocation site upon receipt of proper instructions.

Sincerely yours,

OPERATION ALERT - 1956

(Flemming) Emergency H. Agreements - For Sec. 1

The attached letter dated August 10, 1956, was received from Mr. Flemming, of ODM. It calls for a report by September 15, 1956, indicating steps we have taken to man our relocation-site continuously, and steps taken to identify key officials who would be subject to standing instructions to go to the relocation site for purposes of a drill or in response to a strategic warning.

I mentioned this to the Director on August 14, and advised him we would reply promptly to this as we have our relocation site manned on a continuous basis and we are in position at a moment's notice to send key personnel to our relocation site. It is not necessary to name the personnel who would go to the site under such conditions.

It is noted Flemming said ODM is conducting a fall-out study which may be pertinent to the relocation sites of the various agencies.

Liaison should keep close contact with ODM to see how their study might affect our relocation site.

ACTION:

Liaison Section is preparing an appropriate reply to Mr. Flemming.

You will recall that the Office of Defense Mobilization, just prior to the start of Operation Alert 1956, furnished to all participating agencies a draft of an Emergency Financial System. It requested the agencies to apply the provisions of the proposed system during Operation Alert 1956 and to submit a report after the operation to the Office of Defense Mobilization evaluating the system.

The Bureau had no unresolved problems encountered during the course of Operation Alert 1956 and has no recommendations to make concerning the proposed system.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. - It is recommended that we advise the Office of Defense Mobilization that the Bureau has no unresolved problems encountered during Operation Alert 1956 and has no recommendations to make in connection with the proposed Emergency Financial System.

2. - If the above recommendation is approved, it is recommended that this memorandum be referred to the Liaison Section so that it can appropriately advise the Office of Defense Mobilization.
